

MANCHESTER ANCIENT EGYPT SOCIETY

Announce their New Year lecture for January 2008

Bob Partridge reveals some seldom seen gems: “For Your Eyes Only: New Discoveries and difficult to visit places in Egypt”

Bob has been fortunate to have visited Egypt many times and has travelled to some places "off the beaten track" for many visitors.

With his contacts in Egypt, strengthened through his Editorship of "Ancient Egypt" magazine, he has been allowed to visit places not always open to the public and he has had access to photos, many of which will not have been seen by the general public.

This lecture takes a look at some of these sites and at new archaeological discoveries made around Egypt in recent years..

TO BE HELD AT THE WESTON BUILDING
University of Manchester
Sackville Street
Central Manchester
From 7:30pm
Monday 14th January 2008

The lecture is open to both Society
