

Manchester Ancient Egypt Society:

Tuesday 17th November 2009

'Ancient Egypt in National Museums Liverpool'

Ashley Cooke

Dr Ashley Cooke, Egyptology Curator at National Museums Liverpool, has recently overseen the re-display of the large and impressive Egyptology Collection.

Selecting objects to be displayed was not easy and many of the objects required special conservation treatment. Dr. Cooke will explain the history and importance of the collection, how the museum works and give views behind the scenes.

www.maes.org.uk

