‘Describing Egypt’

Cathie Bryan

In the year of the 200th Anniversary of the publication of “Description de l’Egypte”, Cathie Bryan looks at Napoleon’s military and scientific campaign in Egypt, at the way his Savants recorded what they saw and the impact of the publication of “Description” on the Decorative Arts in Europe.

Cathie is on the Committee of the British Egyptian Society, a lecturer and guide for the Petrie Museum of Egyptology in London and a regular contributor to “Ancient Egypt” magazine.
